

wanted to turn to you and say: „Please, do help me to carry the love of GOD! Help me to carry GOD’s love!“ There are so few who still love GOD and for me alone this love often weighs so heavily that I can hardly bear it. GOD needs bearers of this His love as a counterbalance to the sin of the world. You might not be so successful in loving your neighbour, but loving GOD should not really be a problem.

It is terrible and I am desperate because mankind simply does not want to realise what is going on out there: we have Sodom and Gomorra as many prophecies have already said before, but this time on a worldwide scale! Whoever glances through a glossy, whoever turns on the TV will see Sodom and Gomorra. What then is still pure today? And yet mankind, the Church pretends that everything is all right. Those are my tears. Ask the Mother of GOD, the great Saints to teach you the love towards GOD so that we may answer to the Heart of JESUS with love for so many offences against GOD, which are done to Him on the Altars, for so much unlovingness of mankind. Help me by joining me in bearing this love!

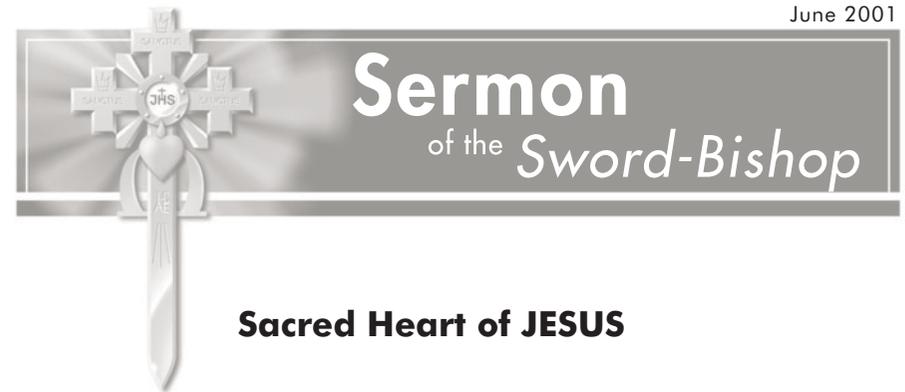

My beloved, I always carry a mental picture in my mind’s eye: I see the earth and on it mankind praising and glorifying GOD in childlike love. That is my dream: the flock of GOD in love before GOD and GOD being their Shepherd. That would be nice! – Amen!

Sacred Heart of JESUS

My beloved, not a pope or Saint, but CHRIST Himself wanted the devotion to His divine Heart. He repeatedly showed (1673 to 1675) to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque His Heart, which loves humankind so much, yet is rewarded with so much ingratitude, and He wanted the institution of the feast of the Sacred Heart and the Communion of reparation on every first Friday of the month. Many Saints, male and female messengers of the SAVIOUR promoted this veneration. In 1856, Pope Pius IX established this feast definitively and extended it to the whole Church. – The Patron Saint of my baptismal church is St. Margaret Mary Alacoque.

Personally, I am pleased with this feast of the Sacred Heart of JESUS especially because I was ordained priest on 17 June 1977, the feast of the Sacred Heart, and on this day could celebrate my first Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

At that time, in the night before my ordination, the SAVIOUR said to me: „Tomorrow you will be My priest of the heart!“ But I could not believe it at all. For who should ordain me anyway? (see circular “Sword-Bishop – His Development”) When, after being ordained priest, I opened the Missal to look up the texts to be said at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, I saw that it was the feast of the Sacred Heart. That was too much for me emotionally, all I could do was stammer all the time: „SAVIOUR, it is crazy what You are doing! What have You done with me, poor wretch!“ – And then I found out that the SAVIOUR is looking for priests of the heart. But He is also looking for people of the heart.

The SAVIOUR most ardently desires to be allowed to dwell in our hearts with His love in order to found His Church in our hearts. When once I was in deep grief pondering the fact that all the church buildings, which were once built with so much love and spirit of sacrifice to the glory of GOD, are now mainly exposed to desecration whereas we can only offer Him very humble chapels and I was almost on the verge of breaking down because of it, GOD gave me fresh heart again saying: „Even if you could offer Me a church with a length of a thousand kilometres, with all pomp and splendour, I would prefer to dwell in the hearts.“ – Therefore, they are not the stone buildings but the hearts that make up the church in which GOD would like to live. And the steeples of this church of the heart, they are your virtues.

The Church Springs Forth from the Sacred Heart of JESUS

My beloved, why should I beat about the bush: So many things that happen in the Official Church do not spring forth from the Heart of JESUS! What are we supposed to do then? How is it that people can still go there although they see the falling away? Only the Church that has free access to the Heart of JESUS can be the true one. After all, the Church did not come from JESUS' mind, but sprang forth from the divine Heart of JESUS when it was pierced by the spear, issuing forth blood and water! – „Most Sacred Heart of JESUS, You seat of love, You seat of wisdom, You seat of mercy ...,” we pray. If faith had its seat in the mind only, it would be like a seed falling on rocky, dusty ground. Perhaps at first, the seed will even germinate and turn green, but then it withers. So much in the Church is only from reason, has only been introduced for the intellect: laws, one law after the other! „Through the law comes sin!” the holy Apostle Paul writes.

So this feast of the Most Sacred Heart of JESUS should be celebrated more particularly with the heart and not with the head. After all, we are not scientists, nor doctors or professors, who assess, research and judge about GOD, but as it is written in the psalm: „Come, let us bow down in worship and kneel before the LORD, our Maker. For He is our GOD and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care.” If we were intellectual Christians, we would have to fall down prostrate at GOD's Majesty trembling. But we are “the flock under His care.” We are Christians of the heart, are we not? Do you, too, rejoice upon entering the church: „O LORD, I love the house where You live, the place where Your glory dwells!”? – My heart, my whole body rejoices in expectation of the living GOD ...

Love, an Untamed Horse

Love alone would be unbridled, it would be like a wild, untamed horse. Therefore, it is right and important to add common sense, which gives reason to love and curbs it. Love is like a coach rolling downhill in constant need of being slowed down by reason by slightly dragging the brakes, otherwise the coach would pick up speed to such an extent that it would overturn. However, if reason locked the wheels abruptly, the coach would likewise overturn. And if reason alone were active, the wheels would be locked and the coach would not be able to gather speed. Consequently, love should make the coach speed up and reason should curb love by slightly dragging the brakes. Reason is needed, but believe me, everything must come from the heart and then be levelled out, bridled, arranged by reason, but not be locked.

GOD wants to be loved and love comes from the heart. But how am I expected to love someone I am not interested in? GOD wants to be searched out. GOD wants to be sought. One of His most favourite games is to hide Himself. And He is happy when you do not quit seeking. Some grow weary and give up: „I do not feel any love towards GOD!” If that grieves you, you do love Him! In that case, GOD just wants you to love Him this way. Because He is a GOD of boundless variety allowing love to unfold differently in every heart. The Saints who died as martyrs held out without any pleasant feelings.

I often see people trying to love the SAVIOUR only to have pleasant feelings for themselves. It is true that people say: „I want to love only Him. To Him alone I want to give these feelings!” – Watch out, if you really frankly and honestly want to please only Him, it could happen that you feel terribly miserable before Him, that you fall down on your knees before Him with a contrite heart: „LORD, I want to love You! Please grant me love so that I can love You!” That is love, if I unbosom myself to Him weeping out of misery, because I want to be to Him as pleases Him, although I am not.

Help Me to Carry the Love of GOD

My beloved, you know my misery, my despair because of mankind, which rests in GOD like a constant agony. Perhaps you will have a slight inkling of what the Heart of JESUS feels today, how much it suffers from the situation of the Church if you read the booklet “Revelations.” And these feelings of the Heart of JESUS, my beloved, I, too, have to sense in my heart, as far as I am able to bear them by GOD's wish. My beloved: the heart of JESUS suffers terribly from the sins of mankind! Only a tiny fragment of these feelings of JESUS – you could not bear it if GOD's grace did not carry you. All the time, I have to see and feel how the Church and mankind keep rejecting grace and keep lapsing deeper and deeper into sin.

While, at the beginning of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, I was kneeling in worship before the SAVIOUR in the Monstrance, before GOD, I actually
