

imagination. Remain for some minutes every day in silence, in a church, in nature or at home, give thought to GOD, look at Him. I can tell you, you will go away from there filled up and satisfied.

GOD Gives Peace

GOD will always give if you try your utmost. Did the SAVIOUR not say every time when He came to people: „Peace be with you! Peace be with this house!“ It is so important to me to say in every Holy Sacrifice of the Mass coming from the bottom of my heart: „Peace be with and among you!“ I do not mean my peace but GOD’s peace. As a Bishop I am able to pass on His peace, GOD’s peace. Your heart has to be open to it and grace will find its way into your heart. If not, then apparently there is some stubbornness, some blockage in you. There is a marvellous means for purification – holy Confession. I cannot explain how most deeply touched and delighted I am if someone brings order into his life and tries to love and please GOD. Amen!

Sermon of the Sword-Bishop

If Man Tries His Utmost, GOD Will always Give

My beloved! The SAVIOUR said: „Love your enemies: do good to them that hate you! If you greet the one who greets you, what do you more? The heathens also do this!“ The more difficulties you have to give a demonstration of love, the greater the deed is. But you can do it because you know that you give it to the SAVIOUR. „Amen I say to you: as long as you did it for one of these, the least of my brethren, you did it for me.“ (Matt. 25,40)

Love of neighbour should always be such as never to overwhelm the other. It is not true love of neighbour if I do good to the other the way I think it proper, but that it is agreeable to the other. „Let every one of you please his neighbour unto good, to edification.“ (Rom. 15,2)

Speech Is Silver, Silence Is Golden

„If you speak, your speech must be better than your silence would have been!“ People talk and talk while emptying themselves or constantly repeating themselves, not just at an advanced age because of their short memories. A telephone has got an earpiece and a mouthpiece – in order to hear and speak. Whoever does not give other people a chance to speak, is mostly a bad listener, someone who actually never or seldom contemplates and rarely thinks matters over in silence. It is the same towards GOD. If you only talk away at Him and do not listen to Him, how will He give you to understand what He wants from you? When you talk with GOD or with the Mother of GOD, then be silent for a while and contemplate, listening inwardly to your heart. GOD has indeed given a wonderful present to every human being, be he endowed or not with special graces: the imagination. He can enliven and kindle your
