

has to decide for himself what to read. But these books are infiltrated by the Evil One to such an extent that they work on the reader like a deadly poison or a contagious disease. Who could withstand the intelligence and maliciousness of the Evil One? You are a free Christian and therefore I cannot forbid you to read such things, but the danger is very great. I strongly advise you to read only such literature as we recommend. Hell itself is a collective complementing one another in knowledge and malice. The fallen Angels took with them into hell their original knowledge changed into spitefulness. What an awful knowledge must such a demon have! Only if you are like a child before GOD, if you love and listen to the words of JESUS with a childlike heart, you are able to protect yourself against that deadly breath of pestilence.

What a spectacle is made about the Qumran-writings. There are some who even interpret them as a proof that the Church is on the wrong track. GOD showed me very clearly that these writings have nothing to do with the Christian Primitive Church, but had been written by the Essenes, who at that time were a separatist, partially fanatic group outside the then church and society.

It is said: „Heaven and earth shall pass, but my words shall not pass.“ (Matth. 24,35) Therefore abide by the reliable word given by GOD. Amen!

Holy Scripture The Trunk of the Tree

We celebrate the Feast of the holy Apostle and Evangelist Matthew. He is one of the four Evangelists, who wrote the Gospel of JESUS in the New Testament. They could not possibly write down everything that the SAVIOUR taught and worked. For this reason, John writes at the end of his Gospel: „But there are also many other things which Jesus did; which, if every one of them were written down, the world itself, I think, would not be able to contain the books that should be written.“ (John 21,25)

No Trunk, no Fruit

Holy Scripture is like the trunk of a tree with its roots and branches. Through revelations to privileged souls GOD allows leaves, flowers and fruits to grow on this trunk. Those are recorded in books such as „The Poem of the Man-GOD“ by Maria Valtorta or in the works of Anne-Catherine Emmerick, to name but two out of a vast number. If we read only these books without paying attention to Holy Scripture, then we would have something very precious for which we had to be grateful to GOD, but it would be fruitless because it would not be in connection with the trunk of Holy Scripture. In today's Gospel it is told: „At that time, Jesus saw a man sitting in the custom house, named Matthew. And Jesus said to him: ‚Follow me!‘ And he rose up and followed him.“ It really happened that way, that is the trunk. However, the Evangelists do not write about what happened before and after. Such things we can read e.g. in the books of Maria Valtorta.

Danger through Books with False Doctrines

My beloved, be on your guard against books and writings attacking or questioning Holy Scripture. Not for nothing did the Church use to forbid the reading of such books under sin. This prohibition has been ever since abolished because one takes the view that the Christian is mature and
