

Dear young people, I am not standing here as one who is not quite with it. I am not someone who wants to spoil the youth's enjoyment, but I know from my own observation – no: I know it from the LORD! I must stand idly by and watch the standard of those listening to this music extremely sink. Is it vital for you to continuously have these "plugs" in your ears because you are afraid of the silence or because you do not know what to do with silence and being alone? If you have become a slave to this music and are perfectly honest with yourself, then you will really have to admit that your standard is sinking, your relation to GOD is dwindling more and more. Your nerves are being destroyed and you are losing your self-control in many respects.

Of course, there are a lot of other dangers you will encounter in your life, not only this chaotic music. But it is a great part of it. The time will come, and it must come for everyone, to decide in favour of or against GOD. You can stop doing ungodly things at any moment because GOD does not take pleasure in the death of a sinner but that he be converted. GOD does not ask: „Why have you sinned?“ but: „When will you turn from your evil ways?“

Chaotic Music – Youth

Once more I am repeating myself with my concern about today's youth. Wherever I look there is chaos and chaos is caused by Lucifer. He is the chaos dragon. People, young and old alike, are not aware of it. Nursery school and other schools already have an influence with lessons and methods of education against sound ethics and morality. The doctrine of Holy Scripture, of the Saints is no longer present.

A few days ago I took the time to listen to music which is common and popular with so many young people. Never will your Guardian Angel agree to this music! Hardly have these music idols come on stage when the first hearers go into a trance or even faint. I know what is in fashion but I also know by whom this music comes into existence. I also know that he who continually listens to this music will become a sinner – will begin to deceive his loved ones – will do things he would otherwise not do in public. His behaviour changes, his inner self is discontented and unstable. Screaming and excesses become manifest.

Music Must Have a Melody

It must make you even-tempered, elevate you, put you in a good mood, etc. Good music is exceptionally gifted, it is in agreement with Heaven. Music which turns into organized noise with frivolous twists, moaning, blaring and screaming, is in reality no more than frustration bawled out into the crowd of people. Youngster, why are you putting up with this? Have a look at this band with the sound turned off and study these musicians and their silly behaviour. You will be astonished at what you will see. In order to present good music there is no need to strip half-naked, it need not be an erotic gymnastics performance. The texts of this music often contain shrewd messages, even antichristian and atheistic ones.
