

of the mind, in which the mind unfolds making a person into a personality. The maturing process of the mind takes longer than the puberty of the body. For this reason, boys and girls should not be going steady and caressing one another before they have reached the age of about 18.

On the other hand, there is nothing against a good fellowship of boys and girls, neither is there anything against activities together. Nor does anything oppose boys playing the role of protector over girls when going out. But a certain distance with respect to the other sex must always be preserved.

Do you not realize that the Evil One is infiltrating our young people with immorality through unbelieving, modernistic priests, through immoral teachers, thus gradually ruining society? But precisely this is a great opportunity for you to tell people through your way of living how valuable GOD and His Commandments are. Amen!

Youth – Holy Time

My beloved! Even today the Holy Family is the unique model for families and family-like Christian communities. But it often happens that parents, if they wish to realize this ideal in their family and really do their utmost, meet with a lack of understanding, sometimes within their own family, but mostly on the part of the unbelieving world. But children also often suffer because they find but little understanding for their being young.

Fighting the Tempter – not Youth

Today many parents are weighed down by care and fear that their children might perish. Nowadays, within the official Church, people are hardly permitted to speak of hell. And yet it exists! A tremendous, spiritual battle is raging between the Angels of Heaven and the infernal spirits. But one thing is certain: if we appreciate and venerate the Holy Family, and take them as a model, we will thrive on them, and will reap richest grace for our family matters.

Today's youth are exposed to the greatest temptations and strongest seductions. The negative influences of school and world are enormous. Therefore, it is difficult to preach about it in general, it is better to talk about it individually. The youth need our support. I know how important young people are to GOD. Our future lies in the youth! Politics, Church leaders and the previous generation have caused havoc indeed. What do we actually pass on to the young generation? – A world, morally and materially destroyed!

Confidence Binds Together

We must give confidence to our youth. We must not bother them with mere don'ts saying: „Don't do this, don't do that!“ Parents must be inventive and search for things their children are allowed to do and guide them. With a mere list of don'ts, they will become frustrated and stubborn and they will make up for everything later to the full. If parents continue to criticize them, they will run away from home and go to the dogs all the more in the world. It is also of great importance that parents warn their children in time of certain dangers to prevent them from rushing headlong into dangers when they set out into the world on their own.

Confidence binds together unbelievably. I know a young man who was innocently put in confinement. The guard was well aware of it, trusted him and got him out of the cell to gather apples on the open area. The boy could have run off, for there was no fence anywhere near. But the guard's confidence in the boy was so strong that he could not bring himself to escape despite a strong temptation to do so. He would have regretted it very much to destroy the guard's confidence. – The confidence of the parents in their children would give a wonderful, strong bond.

Mistrust, however, breeds the opposite. A wife constantly made a scene to her husband accusing him of committing adultery, etc. although it was not true. One day he had enough and said: „I will go and do what you have been thinking me capable of all along! For you believe anyway that I will do it!“

GOD's Invitation

It often is the tempter who wants to lead the young people astray. Take, for example, an invitation to a party and one thinks: „I must go there, otherwise I will be laughed at or bullied, even if I cannot go to Church on Sunday then.“ But, my beloved, the SAVIOUR has a "party" every Sunday. Though your legs are not dancing on this party, your heart will be dancing with joy. The piece of cake on your friends' party may taste delicious, but it maintains and comforts your life but for a little while. The SAVIOUR, too, has set a table with food for you, a table with divine food. This food, which we serve in the name of GOD, gives eternal life! As the SAVIOUR says: „Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you.“ (Joh 6,27)

The Devil Joins in the Dancing

No party of this world can give you eternal life! On the contrary, on such events I often see the Devil dancing, too. – Of course, there are also many decent parties and feasts, which are not affected. – But these flattering, cuddling girls, always chatting the boys up – Disgusting! That is all I can say, I am nauseated. – In spite of everything I still see young people who do not know much about faith, but hats off to them: they have a wonderful character. You might have a very good conversation with them, they talk sense. They just lack guidance.

Time of Puberty – A Holy Time

At present there is a tendency for young people at the early age of 12, 13 or 14 to have marriagelike relationships, often even with the parents' consent. It is, from GOD's point of view, a violation with fatal consequences! – It is not I, Mr Schneider or the Sword-Bishop, who says this, but GOD shows and reveals it to me. – I suffer severely because of it since I know and I am forced to see what will come of it; because I know that in many cases this is the cause of a later broken home. And then, when their lives have been wrecked, they come to the Sword-Bishop, asking: „Please help me!“ Sure, I will help immediately and always. But it need not have happened. So far we have been able to heal many a broken marriage with GOD's help.

The process of puberty, growing up, which has only just begun, is disrupted by love affairs with the other sex at a much too early age. If boys and girls thus come together, their very natures will intermingle. Girls will behave like boys and boys will behave like girls. This produces a hotchpotch of man and woman later causing immense marital problems. Because men are no longer men, they are rather wimps, sonny boys, no longer able to stand firm. As a result, the wife will lack the necessary support of a husband and children will lack a father. Women lose their girlishness; they will lack motherliness and are no longer able to be a wife and a mother.

Becoming an Adult

A young person usually goes through two stages of puberty: the maturing process of the body, in which the body develops, and the maturing process
