

say: „Thank you, that is just what I needed!“? I remember the holy priest Klemens Maria Hofbauer. He went begging, hat in hand, for the poor. When one day he entered a pub begging for alms, a priest hater spat at him in contempt and shouted: „You, holy Joe!“ The priest took his handkerchief, wiped his face, stretched out his hat once again in a friendly manner and said: „That was for me. Apart from that, please give me something for the poor as well!“ The priest hater was so flabbergasted that he emptied his whole wallet into the hat.

My beloved, what is important to me? There are some churches which celebrate the valid Holy Sacrifice with the transubstantiation of bread and wine. It is not so important to me whether these be the Catholic Church, the Orthodox Church or others. The only thing in which I am interested is: do they have the same teaching as the SAVIOUR and the Apostles? For the SAVIOUR has never spoken to some in this way and to others differently. What He taught and said is important to me!

So let us begin this great event – the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Amen!

Sermon of the Sword-Bishop

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass The Unbloody Sacrifice of the Cross

My beloved, when we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, a tremendous miracle to us human beings begins. The SAVIOUR does not die at the cross a second time during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The actual miracle is that what happened to JESUS at that time is made present on the altar mystically. It is as if you lived 2000 years ago and were standing at the cross of JESUS together with Mary, the Mother of GOD, looking at the SAVIOUR, who is terribly broken, beaten, with hardly a sound spot on His body, writhing in dreadful agony, seized with convulsions, dying of suffocation on the cross.

The Unbloody Sacrifice of the Cross

Tell me, what grace, what strength would it have been if you had lived 2000 years ago and thus would have been able to stand at the cross of JESUS? You are given this very same opportunity in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass mystically, by faith, which is given you by the HOLY SPIRIT.

A naïve comparison: in many a fantasy film you can see time machines. You can go inside, set a certain year, then the machine rattles and you are whisked back in time to the year you have entered. There is no rattling in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass – and do not be afraid, we will remain in the age in which we are at present. Here it happens in silence, the HOLY SPIRIT makes it happen.

Eucharistic Miracle

In the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass during the Holy Consecration, the SAVIOUR comes into the Host in order to sacrifice Himself to the Heavenly FATHER for our sins. – That this is not just a teaching of the Church, but a real fact – the bread becoming a life-giving Host – has proved to be true with many Saints: st Nicholas of Flüe had lived only by Holy Communion for 20 years, blessed Therese Neumann for more than 30 years, the victim soul Martha Robin for 50 years. They all did not take any other food but Holy Communion.

Roger Schütz, a Protestant, who founded the youth work 'Taizé', secretly believed in the presence of CHRIST in the Holy Host. One day, when he had been in a Catholic Church just to find some rest, he went to the priest afterwards and told him: „Excuse me, but this chapel is inhabited.“ The priest answered: „No, there is no one living there!“ – „Surely!“ said Roger Schütz. „I certainly felt the presence of someone living in there.“ Roger Schütz was allowed to feel the presence of the SAVIOUR in the tabernacle because he was a very pious man.

St Augustine said: „Because JESUS Himself walked on the earth in the flesh, He also gave us His Flesh as food for our salvation. However, no one shall eat this Flesh unless he has worshipped before. We sin if we do not worship first.“ Do you understand now why we are not allowed to administer Holy Communion like some piece of bread?

There are also famous Eucharistic miracles like the one of Lanciano in Italy. In the eighth century the Host turned into Flesh during the Holy Consecration and the wine into Blood. When scientists in 1970 examined the Host which had turned into Flesh they found out that it was the cardiac muscle of a living man of about 30 years old.

The Redeemer

One might think: The SAVIOUR is indeed in GOD the Almighty. He could create new worlds in the blink of an eye. And yet He comes down on the earth as a human being, allows people to treat Him so terribly, delivers Himself into their hands and to be killed. Why?

Well, on the one hand there is the infinitely powerful GOD, whom the whole universe cannot contain – holy, holy, holy is He! And on the other hand there is one of His children, a human being, who says: „I do not do what You want me to do!“ GOD gave His creature man instructions for use so that he might live in peace without war, without conflicts. But man says: „I do not care!“

Due to this disobedience the little human has offended the infinitely powerful GOD. Because GOD is as merciful as He is just, there are two options: He will either extinguish the human race because it does not obey His instructions, or this debt will be atoned for. If all humanity said: „LORD, we want to make atonement for all this!“, it would not be possible yet because man is not on a level with GOD. Only a GOD would be able to make atonement for it. However, because man has sinned, it requires a man to make atonement. And so the second Person in GOD, JESUS, became flesh in the Virgin Mary and came on the earth. Now the SON of GOD was GOD and Man. As GOD, He is equal to GOD and as a human being He could make atonement on behalf of mankind. He took upon Himself all our sins and faults and if we accept His Blood of redemption we are able to be totally pure again before GOD by virtue of the Blood that CHRIST shed.

Prince of This World

My beloved, we live in a time in which Satan is the prince of this world. Even so, GOD is above all things and reigns over everything but He withdraws Himself. And so the prince of this world has been given much power. However, he does not clearly tell you: „Commit this or that sin!“ All he does is just give you a little bit of poison, only so much that you are no longer able to think clearly. And then comes one thing after the other.

The best weapon to prevent these things from happening is reading Sacred Scripture or other good books such as those of A. K. Emmerich or Maria Valtorta. Take these books again and again, even if you only read one paragraph. For you may think yourself pious and good, the devil will let you have your opinion, and you do not notice that your faith is steadily dwindling.

Are You Pious?

If you want to put yourself to the test to see how pious and good you are, then consider: how would you react if someone spat at you? Would you
