

Create a Relationship with GOD

If I believe in GOD, I ought to also create a relationship with Him. It is of little use if I pray the "Our FATHER" or even Rosaries, if I do not yet have a relationship with Him or with the Mother of GOD. The heart needs to be educated first. It would be beneficial for this purpose to have a priest or bishop, who himself has this heartfelt relationship with GOD and can teach it to you. It will not be possible with long prayers, but with short ones: „Dear GOD, I seek You! If You really exist, show Yourself to me. Then I will, of course, be there for You!“ In the skies there is a huge battle going on between the good and evil angels, an incredible fray! Our heavy prayers do not even stand a chance of rising upwards any more. But little prayers of the heart: „JESUS, I love You!“ are like arrows passing through the fray. Oh, I am a staunch realist, but in this respect I can say, it is true! GOD very much loves it when, for example, you pray the "Our FATHER," the "Hail Mary," the "Glory Be." That should actually have almost become second nature to you. But He would also like to hear what you say, what your heart says! Amen!

GOD First Adam and Eve

My beloved! If people knew what kind of mission I have actually been given by GOD, even St. Peter's in Rome would have too little space. I do not say so on my own initiative. My GOD, the Evil One has such an easy job of it, he does not even have to lure the people into sin, he can simply make them weak. If GOD invites people to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the one says: „Today does not suit me. I do not feel quite so well.“ The other says: „Well, I just have no time now, it is someone's birthday and I am due to go there!“ Do you know this passage in the Gospel when the king sent out his servants: „Bring them in, we are holding a banquet!“ and they made their excuses for many things. But with human invitations they do not say: „If you'll excuse me, because I have been invited with GOD.“ Is it not so that GOD should come first? „Whoever loves father, mother, wife and child, etc., more than Me, is not worthy of Me!“ the SAVIOUR does say in the Gospel. In the situation that we are in today, should one not all the more so rush to GOD? Where is He more living than in the Church, in which the SAVIOUR is present with His Holy Body and Blood? And also in the Bishop, who carries the high-priestly dignity of JESUS CHRIST? Certainly, there are moments, in which you feel ill at ease, but when that is the key point, I could also say today: „I do not feel up to it. I am so tired – dead tired.“ Nevertheless, it is really a matter of course that I should go to the Altar. I am very, very tired, yet not physically, but spiritually, but I will go just the same. I feel absolutely compelled to do so. Is there anything more beautiful than being at the Altar here and causing GOD to come down and passing Him on?

GOD Created Man

The supremely powerful, eternal GOD, who has no beginning, no ending, has no love, He is love. Certainly, there is no comparison between GOD and us because He is GOD! He wanted to spend himself still more and more in this love and so He created man. First one human being. That was not Adam yet. This human being was no male, but the human person. He was created in the image of GOD, fatherly and motherly. That was the human person. And then GOD separated the motherly from the fatherly part. Now they became a man and a woman. So, if the man treats the woman with contempt, he disdains himself, and likewise vice versa. If only people just understood this! In general, the man often thinks – today, of course, everything has shifted – more with his reason and the woman more with her heart. Mind you, sometimes the heart can be much, much stronger than the brain. If both acted together, talked with each other: „What do you think of it?“ they would mutually complement each other.

Disobedience in Paradise

GOD gave Adam and Eve the freedom in Paradise. The food almost dropped into their mouths, everything was present, a land of milk and honey. There was no hostility between man and animal. All the animals snuggled up to Adam and Eve. Unfortunately, also a certain animal which looked so cute, graceful like a swan's neck. Satan went into it, cajoled Eve into disobedience and it was subsequently cursed by GOD into a serpent. Because GOD said to Adam and Eve: „If I give you all this just like that, you in turn must obey in one thing: here is a tree with fruits on it, from which you should not eat!“ Many men accuse Eve: „The woman started it!“ But she was coaxed by the most intelligent spirit, by Satan himself, who once was a mighty Angel and now is a mighty evil spirit. Through each sin this spirit will become ever stronger and stronger. Now you can just figure out, if you look into the world, how strong this evil spirit must be today. The people provide him with the strength through sin, do we not? Man was only seduced by the woman, wasn't he? You should, therefore, say to the man: „Shame on you!“ Both of them, Adam and Eve, did not obey the dear GOD, they thought: „It is not convenient for me now, I will not do what You say! I will do some other thing!“ Towards a human being this disobedience would not have been so bad, but the disobedience was towards GOD. That was an unparalleled lese-majesty!

JESUS, the GOD-Man, Makes Atonement

How can sin be atoned for? After all, we are just human beings. GOD is incomparably higher than man. We are not capable of making atonement. Man is too trivial. He should have to be GOD. But of course, GOD did not sin, man sinned. There would be just one possibility: only someone could make this atonement who is GOD and Man at the same time. Thus came GOD's SON, JESUS, and took the human misery and all the sins upon Himself – from Adam up to the last man yet to come. He could only do so because He is GOD as well. A human being would never have been able to carry it.

How much thanks do we owe to GOD the FATHER that He willed it so, that we may yet be saved. It was His will! And the SON, who loves His FATHER in divine love, immediately fulfilled what the FATHER desired and went onto the Cross for us. He who could Himself say to the earth: „Away with you!“ allowed Himself to be treated so cruelly by His creatures. What debt of thanksgiving do we owe to Him! Through His Precious Blood we are given the possibility to be continually cleansed before GOD. But all this would still be of no avail whatsoever, because we are weak human beings. We need a help in order to be able to accept it: the HOLY SPIRIT! He gives us the strength, He inspires us!
