

Giving Presents to Your Guardian Angel

From time to time come up with little thoughts of your Guardian Angel who is behind you or over you, before you or beside you, simply there for you. Try to give him particular pleasure. Once I said to my Angel: „What can I give you after all, except that I make GOD happy? Because that is Your joy.“ In that instant, the thought crossed my mind to say to GOD: „You do like to hear the requests of poor people like myself. So I pray You, make my Guardian Angel happy! You might want to give him a higher knowledge of You! You can give it to him, of course, because he is holy, without blemish or spot.“ And I was allowed to recognise how the Angel stretched out his arms and a beam of light flowed into his heart. He lit up full of joy! That, to say the least, is a poor description for what I saw. You can all ask in prayer for your Guardian Angel also such a joy. The more wretched you are, the more joy he will have if you might eventually want to think of him. Amen!

Your Personal Guardian Angel Speaking with GOD

My beloved! The majority of the people does no longer believe in Angels. And those seeming Angels that people believe in and venerate are no Angels but elves. Angels with breasts or winglets are no ministers of GOD, nor Angels of Heaven. For an Angel is so supremely powerful, he cannot be made into a cute and cuddly being. It may perhaps be good for little children to have the Angels explained to them in a loving way.

In Heaven there are uncountable Angels. From among these, GOD constantly takes an Angel and sends him to the earth to a new human being. As soon as the first organ, the heart, beats in the mother's womb, GOD gives into this developing human being His breath, the soul, as He did with Adam, the first human being, and places an Angel at his side. The Angel loves you more than anyone ever can. And if someone sacrificed himself for you, did anything for you, forgot himself, it would then still not be this love which your Guardian Angel gives you. The Angel could do a great many things. But sometimes he seems to me like a butler just standing behind you and waiting for your requests in order to fulfil them if they please GOD. You cannot, of course, expect him to do something that displeases GOD. An Angel always sees GOD, and he would like to lead you back to your FATHER in Heaven. Since from GOD you came and to Him you shall go back, because GOD gave you His breath. Only through GOD's breath can you be a human being, otherwise you would be like an animal or a mere chunk of flesh.

You Have to Listen

You would also be able to hear your Guardian Angel if you have the grace within you. But it is the same as among siblings or mainly in a marriage between husband and wife: one should listen to the other person. First you should ask: „Why now have you spoken like this, or acted like that? What did you mean by that? What is your view on the matter?“ If you see a child doing something that is not good, you do not simply tell him off but you ask: „What were you thinking? Tell me!“ Only then can you judge. It is the same with GOD, with the citizens of Heaven, chiefly also with the Guardian Angel: you have to listen. But before you can hear him, you need, of course, to become acquainted with him. You have to enter into a relationship with him, socialise with him more often. I cannot love what I do not know. Generally speaking, it is not usual for people to see GOD; there are exceptions. However, you can hear Him, but most of the time not with your ears, but in the heart.

Do you know how much it grieves me when, being on the road, it is shown to me how the Guardian Angel follows a human being at a great distance because of his sinfulness. You often see this with Muslims whose wives are expected to walk a few paces behind their husbands. While the Angel is walking behind, he is praying fervently for this foolish human child. There are people that would have had to be damned nevertheless they only just managed to make it to Heaven because their Guardian Angel was begging and pleading before GOD's throne on their behalf. The Guardian Angel does a lot more for you than you might believe or can begin to imagine. He is a magnificent youth. If the girls were able to see their Guardian Angel, they would not even marry any more. Let us thank GOD that such is not the case.

Faith Is No Science

There are people who want to explain the Christian faith with their mind. That is not possible because the Christian faith cannot be solved mathematically. Faith is no science, but, exactly, a faith. You will receive this faith if you open up your heart. Then the HOLY SPIRIT can work in you. Of course, it is not just done at the push of a button. The famous Albert Einstein once said to the well-known Cardinal Faulhaber: „Your Eminence, what would you say when we mathematicians indisputably proved to you by figures that there is no GOD?“ The Cardinal answered: „I would wait in patience until you have found your miscalculation.“ – If I know something, it ceases to be faith.

Prayer and Contemplation

An Angel spoke on behalf of the Heavenly FATHER to the Virgin Mary: „Hail, Mary! You are full of grace! The LORD is with You! Blessed are You among women ...!“ Why should we not be allowed to repeat this? That would be confusing, wouldn't it? The LORD's Prayer, „Glory Be...“, „Hail Mary ...“, these prayers are holy, holy, holy, for they come from Heaven. The LORD's Prayer was prayed and taught by JESUS Himself. But one thing we should never skip: speaking with GOD and the citizens of Heaven with our own words from the heart.

If you want to contemplate, at home or at church, then sit down. Wait yet a little while for yourself to calm down. That may last a moment or perhaps longer. Then look at the SAVIOUR, some or other image that you love, etc. You need not talk. Just give free rein to your thoughts. You can also pray in silence. By that I mean meditation. Faith will only be bestowed by GOD if you open your heart. The soul longs for GOD. But many people have smashed her, filled her up with all filth and terrible dirt of sin so that they are no longer able to hear her. In Sacred Scripture it says: „Wash me and I will be whiter than snow.“ If you cannot believe, then tell Him: „LORD, if You really exist, I am willing to accept You, love You. But please help me that I may recognise it!“ And should you die this very moment, you are saved because you wanted to believe.
