

two hearts: one that feels the grief and pain and the being misunderstood – and the other heart, the mightier one, feels and knows: „GOD is there! I have GOD, what more do I need? I am happy in Him!“ This does not mean that I will subsequently forget the world, those entrusted to my care, it means that with the happiness in Him I am able to give. I think less about me being expected to go to Heaven, but I'd rather have you go to Heaven. If you have GOD, you will be enriched, then the so-called peace comes into your heart, which you can ooze out afterwards – unknowingly. Not by thinking: „The switch is on, click!“ and then peace will flow forth from you. No, that is not the way it is done. It will flow forth when you do not think about it. This peace cannot be taken away from you, because it is from GOD. Amen!

Sermon of the Sword-Bishop

The Letter Kills Being Happy for GOD

My beloved! Man is divine, because the soul is seated in him, also in every pagan and even every great sinner. And what is the soul? It is the breath, the breath of life of GOD. GOD breathed into the first man's nostrils the breath of life. And afterwards on earth: as soon as the heart of the begotten child begins to beat, GOD puts His breath into the heart. GOD's breath of life is divine, which is why it says in Holy Scripture: „You are gods!“ So man is divine, but not the Sunday nor the Sabbath. Who is more important: Sunday or man? Important according to GOD is: „Six days you shall labour and on the seventh day you shall rest!“ And those who claim so zealously that the Sabbath must be kept holy and not the Sunday, let them go to the Jews and stay there. We have such great Saints who kept the Sunday holy. Do look at their lives, follow their example. One has become holy through social works, another in prayer and still another as a hermit. Not everyone can live as these did but you can study their virtues and then live your life according to your own assignment and vocation.

Know-It-Alls and Those Faithful to the Letter

Many people judge according to their already preconceived human opinion, which is why the HOLY SPIRIT cannot enter into them. If someone comes up to you, whether he be a sinner, a Saint, an Islamist, or anybody else: you must empty yourself so that the HOLY SPIRIT can recognise the other person through you.

They are the know-it-alls who are stuck in the Old Testament. They are the ones faithful to the letter like the stubborn Jews in those days. Apostle Paul said: „The letter kills!“ And those who judge with a preconceived know-it-all attitude, from their human head are the ones who will always just pick certain phrases from the Bible for themselves, only the phrases that suit them. They are rightly called sectarians.

Bible Translations

Then one should keep in mind that Holy Scripture was translated many times. Unfortunately, they made the mistake of not always using the original text when translating, but the latest translation. Mind you, language changes. If our great-great-grandmother were came to the earth now, she would not be able to understand our language at all any more. Therefore, I find it very practical in the Church that we have Latin, but not for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, but for the archives. Latin is a dead language. It is no longer spoken in the world and consequently remains unchanged – unlike our language that even changes from year to year. In any case, my German speaking great-grandmother or even my grandmother would not know what city, street, shop or job means, she would have no inkling. Do you understand? That is why I cannot translate from yesterday to today, but I must take from the original. Not what has already been translated but the origin is GOD’s word, which has to be translated again and again. Then there is another problem: the people of today translate about-2,000-year-old Aramaic texts. The SAVIOUR told me: „The mistake is: Man should just have to live in the situation of that time, then they would understand everything quite differently.“ A small example, which even causes certain Doctors of Theology to stumble: People say that the Mother of GOD had other children, because it says in Holy Scripture that they said to JESUS: „Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You.“ What rubbish! I mean, a theologian should be so intelligent as to know that in the past the Jews called every relative up to the seventh degree brother and sister, not brother-in-law or cousin, and so on. That is why they are also called such in the Bible. After all, if it says “tax collectors” in the Bible, we understand by this word nowadays the sinners and not the customs officers.

Being Happy for GOD is Much More Gigantic

If I do something, I want to do what I can for the law, for GOD. If I, as a bishop, win a person for GOD, I am full of joy for GOD, not for me. I do not even know if I am happy for myself. It is much more gigantic and greater to be happy for GOD. After all, we are there for Him, not for ourselves. If you have found GOD, if you become one with GOD, so that He is pleased with you and you with Him – I could say, I speak from my own experience –, then it all does not matter however much people plague and condemn you, and so on. When I was once asked if I were not afraid because I speak out so clearly, I said: „Why? I have GOD!“ Then they replied: „And when they kill you?“ My answer: „In that case, I am with GOD. Is there something better?“

I Have GOD, What More Do I Need?

If I have found GOD, I will discover that I have also found myself. Only in GOD can you find yourself. It is very wrong to think that I will find myself if I only search for myself. Because if I do that, I will become a selfish person. In the end, it is GOD who finds me. A woman said to me: „My heart is full of love for GOD – full of love!“ And I said in reply: „You selfish woman!“ – „What, what?“ she asked. Then I explained to her: „Who has filled your heart with love? You yourself? That is not possible. GOD has filled you, so pass it on to others. Allow it to overflow – do not keep it to yourself!“

The search for GOD, consuming oneself in longing for the Eternal One, will enrich you endlessly. Whatever adversity may come your way, you will be in peace all the same. As I always say, I seem to have
