

Then GOD took away from man the motherly part and created Eve from it. And so they were Adam and Eve. – You women must just put yourselves in the place of the Mother of GOD. Act as she did, I mean, in your heart.

Have You Suffered for Humanity yet?

If I am the Instrument of JESUS CHRIST, I can hardly fare any better than He does. Before you want to correct me, let me ask you: „Have you suffered for humanity yet? Have you gone through sorrows yet because humanity so cuts itself off from GOD?“ I mean, I do not know how much GOD gives me, I can only say one thing: if I immerse myself in this grief, there is a superhuman pain in me which I can only endure with GOD’s grace! But GOD gave me something and that is not everyone’s idea of a fanatic at all: I have humour, and that is my little boat with which I can ship across this slop of sinfulness. Amen!

Holy Eucharist Priesthood

My beloved! How much do people today give a distorted rendering and new interpretation to Holy Scripture, as suits everyone best, even theologians. If GOD speaks, it is clear and understandable. Now I am sure that I am going to have difficulties with the Protestants and Evangelicals once again. But I cannot speak to please you, because I do not speak from my head; I speak what the SAVIOUR tells and shows me, what He lets me know.

Before His terrible passion and death, CHRIST gathered His Apostles around a table. Already there begins the misrepresentation. All kinds of pictures have been painted of it – all well-meant –, wonderful stools on which they were seated, some even sitting on the floor. But it was not like that. It was a very beautiful, elegant room in which there were no chairs, but couches. Does it not say: „John was lying next to Him“? It was Roman custom to eat while lying down. A Traditionalist showed me a picture on which the SAVIOUR gives the kneeling John a white host in his mouth, and said: „Do you see, that is how it is done!“ But the SAVIOUR did not have hosts at all, but a flat loaf of bread, from which He broke off chunks. Breaking off bite-size chunks would not be so successful. No, JESUS put the pieces of bread into the Apostles’ hands. – Of course, your hands should be clean and your teeth brushed. Otherwise, poor SAVIOUR who has to go in there! And above all, it is your heart that matters most!

Truly Body and Blood of JESUS CHRIST

Anyone attending the Official Church should ask the priest: „Do you believe that after Consecration the living SAVIOUR is present in Flesh and Blood?“ If He says: „Yes!“ or „Of course!“ you might ask: „Why do you treat Him in such a way that people do not notice at all whom you hold in your hands?“ Even if the priest is in a state of death-bringing sin, he can consecrate the Eucharist validly if he believes in what he is doing. Because it is not the priest who performs the transubstantiation, but the HOLY SPIRIT transubstantiates through the ordained priest.

No Intercommunion

Why no intercommunion? Because only the Christians with the seven Sacraments, e.g. the Catholics, the Orthodox ... have valid ordinations and believe that after Consecration the host and the wine are really the Body and Blood of JESUS CHRIST, but Christians of other denominations only see the spiritual power of GOD in them. Honestly, I cannot give the SAVIOUR personally in Body and Blood to someone who does not believe that it is the living SAVIOUR! Therefore, no intercommunion!

Distribution of Communion by Ordained Ministers Only

GOD does not want lay people to distribute Communion. I do not use the term “lay people” belittlingly, but by it I mean people who are not on the steps to the priesthood. Womenpriests in the Evangelical Church may distribute the hosts because the latter are not actually the SAVIOUR in body and blood. Then it does not matter either what they do with it. If you enter a Reformed or Protestant Church, you will indeed also feel a power. It is the Christian prayer they have, but it is not the SAVIOUR in Flesh and Blood as we Catholics have it if the priest believes.

Once in the past, when I distributed Holy Communion, I perceived the SAVIOUR in the Host as a little Child and all of a sudden I had to feel Him making a warding-off gesture. I said: „SAVIOUR, I cannot help it; he is a secret sinner, I cannot expose him. I must give You to him. Give me Your pain and help him to come to Confession.“ If someone in a state of death-bringing sin comes to the Communion rail, and the general public does not know about it, I must give him Holy Communion as the SAVIOUR did to Judas Iscariot, but that hurts terribly. Afterwards, I would be compelled to summon that person to me and explain to him: „Please, do not come to the Communion rail any more unless you have appropriately dealt with it.“ Then I will do my best that he may recognise his mistake and go to confession.

Women as Priestesses?

Dear women, do you know who is the greatest in Heaven? Mary, the Mother of our LORD! For GOD is not a GOD of the dead or the sleeping, but a GOD of the living. If CHRIST had wanted to make women priests, He would quite definitely have chosen His Mother for the task first. He wants us priests to be second Christs – goodness me, but He so wills it! We ought to represent second Christs – and they are men. He wanted to display GOD’s strength also physically, although women can sometimes be spiritually much stronger than men. And because CHRIST is no longer walking the earth in His human body, we priests should go out in His name.

There are still other reasons. Just imagine, a priestess is in the Confessional and a man goes to Confession with her. As you know, there are different kinds of men; those who confess their sexual lusts and sins they committed, and in the end take delight in being able to tell it to a woman. There are many more reasons. I hope that one day men will also learn that women think with the heart. A man actually acts more on the logic of reason, a woman on the logic of the heart. Nowadays things are already mixed up. A woman, whether married or not, whether girl or old lady, always has a motherliness in herself. The first man was created in GOD’s image, because GOD said: „I will create man in My image!“ But GOD is neither man nor woman, but fatherly and motherly. And this first man was fatherly and motherly.
