

by and watch how these puffed-up people offend the supremely powerful GOD, do not bother about Him. St. Michael, the Angels anyway, in particular those seven around GOD's throne, must indeed have a seal that they do not lash out. GOD has sealed them yet. Nevertheless, I earnestly ask you to invoke Michael, but not for yourselves. I can hardly describe Archangel Michael. On the one hand, he is really a man, but I do not mean a man according to gender, but as a man should be. On the other hand, he is also a general. When he comes or speaks, you hear that something powerful approaches. You hear how the Angels are enthusiastic – his stride gives incredible courage. You have to admit, a supreme power arrives because when Michael once came down in the Old Testament, the sea surged upwards and the earth shook violently. And then there is the other image: he is so normal, so humble, so kindly. Indeed, they are inhabitants of Heaven. Amen!

GOD's Incomprehensible Love Abuse of Children

My beloved, I can keep talking and talking, I simply cannot bring what I feel. I tell you that we cannot begin to imagine this love of GOD! If only just a little ray, a tiny little ray of this love were broken off – if you want to put it like that –, you would die here on earth out of longing for the whole. That is GOD! And to be separated from Him, because one has offended Him ...!

The Tramp

If I look into the world now – I am speaking as Instrument of GOD –, over 80% of the people, were they to die now, would be lost, damned. Can I still laugh in the face of it? Because they, too, are our siblings. They are children of GOD! An example that I have often told before: I once had the experience that such a tramp, a down-and-out vagabond that is, came up to me, in ragged clothes, stinking, an awful smell! Maybe he had not had a shower in at least two, three years any more, and, to top it all off, he was drunk, drool dribbled down, his nose was running ... I wanted to turn away. But my usual response is this: when something is coming my way which makes me think that it is more than I can handle, I gaze upwards: „Look!“ And the Heavenly FATHER said to me: „Please, for Me, because he, too, is My child, I am so very desirous to also have him with Me one day. Lead him to Me!“ And my answer was not: „Yes,“ but: „I can only do this for Your sake!“

GOD's Love in Nature

GOD made everything. He who does not believe so, believes something truly impossible: a nothingness creates something out of nothing. Since when is that possible? Just think about the billions of various flowers! Each has a different fragrance. The nothingness is supposed to have created it? This unbelievably vast number of different little animals! The one needs four legs, the other one needs six legs or eight. Everything must be well thought out. Do the birds really just seem to have come from nothingness into existence? We very much love to hear the twittering of birds. Certain little birds have a fantastic song, which feels so good if you still have an eye, an ear, and a heart for it. GOD put a lot more into this warbling. It actually means something quite different because the bird says: „Keep out, this is my territory!“ But it sounds wonderful. You must admit, that can only be love. And GOD is love, absolute love, but also righteousness.

America Wants War

Maybe some of you thought: „Today the Sword-Bishop will say: ‚It is high time to call the Archangel Michael that he may fight for the Church!‘“ No, things must get even worse, although it is already quite bad. America would like to be ruler of the world. America would like to either own or destroy Europe. Why? America now wants to get Russia and Germany to start a war against each other, because they fear this power. It was seen during the Hitler era what the Germans achieved, how they occupied so many countries very quickly. That is what the Americans fear, that is why they wreck the character of the Germans, also, of course, of us, the Swiss people, of all. And this can be done with nothing better than sex, because anyone who simply gives away sex in an empty manner or indulges in masturbation and all that, will become a slave of their own body. You are no longer the master of your own self; no longer is your spirit ruling, but your sex drive! Whereas one could so well reverse the polarity of the sex drive, use it for good causes.

Sex Scientists in America

One of the most famous and most influential scientists in modern history carried out experiments on hundreds of children and even babies and had these carried out, including rape! Fathers were urged and paid to do so by the famous professor. They had to use a stopwatch during the act in order to see how long it takes, how long the child is still holding out or ... sex scientist Kinsey. It seems too unbelievable to be true, and yet it is completely documented. Now an older survivor of this horror has emerged to tell her story. She confirms that her father and grandfather were paid by Kinsey, and they were well aware of what was done to her. The victim describes how her father used a stopwatch while he sexually abused her, filmed some of the acts and sent those films to Kinsey – the great sex scientist of America. She also testifies that Kinsey wrote out a cheque to her grandfather. Dr. Judith A. Reisman describes in her book “Sexual Sabotage” how one mad scientist unleashed a plague of corruption and contagion on America. And as usual, when in America something is big, it also passes on to Europe. They want to destroy the children with early sex education and gender theory. Many children are even falling ill when their sex drive was aroused prematurely. Such a society can be more easily manipulated.

I do not believe, if GOD simply forgives everything now, that the people will be converted and become good. Impossible! Mankind on the whole – it is not what I want, but unfortunately, there is no other way – must first learn how to tremble. They must learn again that there is yet something greater, after all, than what there is on earth, that they call out for help. It is no pleasure for me to talk about such things, I would rather do education of the heart.
