

you will then always be able to be immersed in GOD in an ecstasy of jubilation. Then one day GOD will say: „Well, so far I have been showering him with presents all the time. Now I will check whether his love is genuine or not. I will let him get a little thirsty.“ Then GOD leads you into a tunnel. I have often told you before. Sometimes this tunnel is terribly long. GOD has calculated everything. And suddenly the moment comes for this person to say: „I cannot go on, I cannot cope any more! He has forsaken me. So there is no GOD after all.“ And perhaps some people might make the worst mistake they can make: They stand up with their last ounce of strength and try to walk back, but they will not manage this distance any more. If, however, they had got to their feet one more time and moved forward, it would only have been a short distance and then the tunnel would have made a bend to the right and they would have seen the light at the end. Perhaps it would only have been a five-minute walk and they would have reached the end of the tunnel. Amen!

Sermon of the Schwert-Bischof

GOD Always Gives More than He Takes Hell is a Collective

My beloved! This being smitten with GOD is a tremendous force in all respects. Even if you are in a terrible situation, in a pitch-dark night, as if GOD were away from you. You might weep about it, be in awful distress, but somewhere in you is simply a staff holding you as long as it takes, and you just say: „LORD, if this is the way it has to be, then let it be so, until I get out. You surely will not let me down. Then I will hold out in the dark, sometime You will come!“ Believe me, such difficult moments which you go through are like many heavy stones laid in your heart. What happens then? Your heart will enlarge! No one will become great in perfection, in virtue if they do not from time to time run into difficulties which further enlarge their heart. That can be many things: accidents, hospitalisations, in your family, too, there can be very heavy stones ... In such moments many people ask GOD: „But what have I done? Why do You strike me?“ No, GOD wants to enlarge your heart – it is GOD’s particular way of doing things.

Job’s Trial

There are also situations, when GOD and Satan are having a conversation and the Evil One says to the good LORD: „You are exceedingly pleased with this person, because he honours You and is so good! Small wonder since You allow things to work out so well for him. If I could torment him – You will see, he will give in and turn away from You!“ And GOD replies: „All right, go ahead!" That's what happened to Job. He was one of the wealthiest people, had immense herds of all kinds of animals, happy children, everything. Then the Evil One struck him in such way that he lost everything and was lying ill on the ground, almost like a leper. Then his friends came and gave him their so-called good advice, which was not good and depressed him all the more, but he did not lose his faith and held out. What did GOD do afterwards? He gave him twice as much as he owned before. And the Evil One was severely defeated by this Job.

You do know GOD the FATHER, who does not lose sight of you for one millionth of a second. Even if I were having a dreadfully hard time, I know He sees me all the same. No person can suffer too much, he will die beforehand. For this is our happiness, our joy: we know full well what awaits us if we try – indeed, I just say try – to be a pleasure to Him out of love of GOD. GOD does not want our successes, GOD wants our efforts.

Hell Is a Collective

If I could lead only one soul to GOD, who at first was more devoted to the devil, wherever on earth, if I could only pull away one soul from the Evil One, I will strike all hell by doing so, not just this demon or that devil who possessed the soul. If once I did something that caused a person to completely convert, I was happy for GOD and for this person; and I sensed that GOD was also pleased. Then I said: „It cannot be worth much. It is only one person. But how many people are infected by the Evil One!" Then He explained to me: „Remember, hell is a collective body. If you strike only one of them, you strike all hell!" If only people knew how valuable it is, for example, to use Holy Water; provided that it has been properly sacralised by a priest and that it is not just ordinary water topped up by the sacristan.

Nicolaus Wolf of Rippertschwand, whose process of beatification is currently running in the Vatican, was a very devout farmer who had received the gift of curing diseases by prayer. And this is typical of the Church: because too many people came, they forbade him to cure. At an exorcism of a possessed woman the Evil One was forced to speak. This is called "the sermon of the devil." The devil had to make known how bad the priests often are at the altar, how people go to hell, what people do wrong. The Evil One also knows about the inestimable value of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and that Holy Communion is truly the Body and Blood of JESUS CHRIST. It is unbelievable: when I go and visit an official church, I see people who go up for Communion and indeed just believe that it is a blessed bread, a holy bread, yet do not know that they are now holding the SAVIOUR in their hands. Who does not know or does not know any more what Holy Communion is, must absolutely refrain from receiving Communion. However, we should not moan about them, but pray for them.

Practising Virtues

There are so many virtues that it is impossible to consciously keep all of them. So there is only one option left: love. Because if you love, all virtues are actually included. St Francis of Sales, Bishop of Geneva, made a comparison, the gist of which I will give here: „Imagine that every bee flying into and out of a beehive is a virtue. The virtues are as countless as the bees and it is impossible for you to follow every bee. But the queen bee is love and when the queen bee leaves the beehive, all bees will accompany her." So if we have love, I do not mean human love, but the GOD-given one, we will possess all virtues. It is as simple as that.

GOD Checks Whether Your Love Is Genuine or Not

There are people who have been converted, who are completely devoted to GOD, full of joy, and all of a sudden these joys and feelings are gone. Over and done with! Finished! Amen! And they ask themselves: „What is wrong with me? What has just happened? I have lost all interest in religiousness. Oh, I will stop altogether ..." You cannot say to GOD all the time: „I love You, I love You", thinking that
