

The mind is also a gift of the HOLY SPIRIT, but the HOLY SPIRIT will not work with the mind until it is heated up by the heart, the oven.

Passing on Love

Indeed, we have to be thankful every day – and if someone can to do it, every second – for the Precious Blood of JESUS which He shed for us. People who do not have the Christian faith through no fault of their own, can enter Heaven, too, if they behave well and socially according to their morals, according to their conscience. A pagan can also do so because all people are children of GOD, after all, and the HOLY SPIRIT grants them His grace as well – but how much more us who have so many Sacraments, so much strength? It is actually very simple: you only have to ask GOD for love until your heart is full. Then you should pour out this love, pass it on through your deeds. If you keep this love just for yourself, it is selfish. Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you. Everything is possible with the Precious Blood. Amen!

Going and Taking the Precious Blood The Sacrament of Confession

My beloved, a heartfelt welcome to today's Sacrifice of the Mass on Sunday on the feast of the Precious Blood. We remember this Precious Blood every time by contemplating the Cross with the SAVIOUR on it. It is wrong when one believes that GOD has suffered the terrible death of the Cross for us and as a result we are free from sin for ever. No, we must go and take the Blood, ask for it with contrition and sorrow. We, Catholics, Old Catholics, Orthodox believers and some separate branches of it do have the possibility that our sins are blotted out again in Confession through the Precious Blood. Unfortunately, in many places this is no longer the practice, although it is written in the Bible. The SAVIOUR said to the Apostles: „Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them.“ But He further said: „Whose sins you shall retain, they are retained!“ If someone only enters the confessional in order to simply be clean for a while, but does not intend to change his life, or at least tries not to commit these sins any more, there is no firm resolution. So for me there is only one thing: to sin no more! That is the power of the Precious Blood.

The Words of Consecration

At the Last Supper, JESUS said the words of Consecration: „This is My Body, which will be given up for you. ... As often as you shall do these things, you shall do them for perpetual renewal!“ That is the correct translation. Many say: „It is not meant that way, it is to be taken spiritually: in the Host is not GOD Himself, but only the power of GOD." And again they are smarter than GOD! If the SAVIOUR says: „This is My Body! ... As often as you shall do these things, you shall do them ...," He means it the way He said it. „Do these things ..." What does "these things" mean? Exactly these things He just said and did: the Transubstantiation of the bread into His Body. That is what you are supposed to do now! And it is the same with the wine as well, which He took and changed into His Blood: „This is the Chalice of My Blood ... As often as you shall do these things, you shall do them for perpetual renewal!" At that moment, JESUS did not only speak as a human being, but also as GOD. And in GOD JESUS is equal with the FATHER – equal in Majesty. We do know that He had already before changed water into wine in Cana.

This Holy Sacrifice of the Mass happens again and again. On the Cross the SAVIOUR placed Himself in every Holy Sacrifice of the Mass ever to be offered up. It is not a new Sacrifice, otherwise I would not perform it any more, but what happened on Calvary happens again. We are spiritually brought back to the year 33. It is a leap in time. Therefore, we cannot just sit comfortably during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we should rather remember: this is what happened on Calvary! And the more you place yourself spiritually in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and are aware that "This is the Sacred Blood of JESUS – the Body of CHRIST!" the more grace you may receive. Why did the SAVIOUR take bread and wine to change them into Flesh and Blood? Because both came from Paradise. When Noah stepped out of the Ark after the Flood, GOD gave him a vine branch and a grain, which Noah then planted. That is why they are the two most precious foods we have.

Many People Do Not Accept the Precious Blood

Through this Precious Blood our sins can be forgiven time and again, but we must go and take it. Anyone who does not go and take it, does not obtain it. Therefore, I say at the Holy Consecration: „...which for you and for many shall be shed to the remission of sins." I do not say: „... for all shall be shed ...," because many do not accept this Precious Blood. Those who have the Sacrament of Confession go to the confessional. Those who have not may go down on their knees and ask for forgiveness with contrition and sorrow by promising GOD: „From now on I want to make You happy." And what is more, through the Sacrament of Confession a person will receive particular graces. He will receive special strength to make a new start. No scars are left in his soul, which can otherwise itch from time to time. The sins are not only forgiven, but completely blotted out, so that even the Evil One – who one day will be our accuser before GOD's throne – does not know them any more.

Often, people are very rarely able to attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Especially for our own people it is very difficult. For many of our faithful it is a two-or-more-hour drive. Humanly speaking, that is quite a long distance. But imagine, the SAVIOUR would appear here on Sunday. What do you think would happen? People would come from anywhere. And yet, in every Holy Sacrifice of the Mass the SAVIOUR comes down personally on the Altar. How is that appreciated?

When you are dying, every drop of the Precious Blood, shed for you in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, will comfort you exceedingly. How much power must a drop of the Blood, which is also divine, have that GOD helps you? If billions of people shed their blood, it would not be worth as much as a millionth of a drop of the Precious Blood of JESUS, and yet He shed it so generously. There is no image that shows what the SAVIOUR really looked like in His suffering. At the scourging they used whips with iron balls and hooks; they rained blows on Him so cruelly that strips of skin were hanging loosely down from His body. To think that the few drops of Blood at His circumcision after Jewish custom would have sufficed. But He wanted to show us His love on the Cross. „And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself!" And yet many say: „Nonsense, the figure of CHRIST crucified must be removed!" or: „The cross must be removed!" – It frequently happened, for example to Francis of Assisi or Bernard of Clairvaux, who highly venerated the cross. They had a crucifix, that is a cross with a figure of CHRIST on it, from which JESUS bent down to embrace these Saints. Oh, unless you become like little children. Children first think with their heart, not with their reason.
