

If someone thinks that GOD has now just put aside His Mother in Heaven, somewhere amongst the also-rans – my GOD, how can anyone be so silly ...? Such a person would not know GOD at all. GOD is love! He gave us the 4th Commandment: „You shall honour your father and mother!“ Do you think that He does not do so Himself? Certainly, as long as Mary was on earth, she was not supposed to be talked about so much, neither was St Joseph, only the teaching of JESUS was to be spread. But it should be clear to every child that GOD elevates His beloved Mother in Heaven. If you do not understand, you apparently do not love your mother. And if once you happen to enter Heaven together, will you tell her: „Now you are no longer my mother!“? This is so crank-brained, there is only one who can spout such nonsense: Satan. GOD wants everyone who goes to Heaven to be happy. And it would be the greatest pleasure if those in Heaven could still do something for us. Why not His Mother, Daughter and Spouse first? Nothing is impossible with GOD! Amen!

Holy Family – Our Model The Purity of Mary

My beloved! The Holy Family: three persons – one unity, an example for us, a living image of the Most Holy TRINITY. The unity of the Holy Family, their thorough love is an example for us, who have families. We can ask them, beseech them, if in our families there is no harmony. Of course, you cannot ask GOD for something and then expect things to happen exactly the way you think they should. GOD always hears someone's request, and He grants His grace to the one for whom you pray, and in such a way that he could accept it. But you cannot expect GOD to force anyone. People are always free to accept this grace or not. Even if someone does not accept it at all, you will not have prayed in vain. When one day you die, you will be surprised how many will come up to you saying: „You have saved me!“ Because GOD will share out each unaccepted prayer to others who accept it.

Thinking about the Holy Family, I would advise you: „You fathers, take Joseph as your model. You mothers, take Mary as your model. You children, take the Infant JESUS as your model.“ Not when you have a civil wedding, but as soon as you receive the Sacrament of Matrimony, you will be priests in your own home, even the husband. Of course, the first duty of a father is to earn a living for his family with his work. But the father is bound by the same obligation to tell his child about GOD as the mother. He is a priest in his family. In general, it is actually true that a mother can often put matters concerning GOD more easily into the child's heart, because as a woman she thinks more with her mind, with her heart than the man does.

This already starts when the child, for example, has finished drinking and the mother is carrying him around until he burps and is ready to be laid down. When the mother is walking around with her child in her arms – I just hope that you have furnished your home with a GOD's corner, a crucifix or a picture of JESUS – she can point to the picture when passing and blow the SAVIOUR a kiss. A child will always very quickly copy what his father and mother do from their hearts. That is where it already starts.

In general, a man is not so good at putting things into the heart in the child's language as a woman. That is why the husband ought to say how religion is to be practised to the glory of GOD in the family and the wife ought to put it into the child's heart. You should talk about these things during the time of acquaintance – before the wedding. If the woman then says: „That is out of the question! I do not want religion to be practised the way you want to!“ for goodness' sake, then do not marry! If you – father, mother – die, GOD will say to you: „Give an account of your stewardship!“ All right, you can make up for everything here on earth. In fact, it has become quite forgotten that the father should be aware that he is priest in his home through this Sacrament of Matrimony. It is a Sacrament after all. And it is not just there to allow you to go to bed with each other without this being a sin any more, it is mainly because: you are consecrated as priest and priestess. So many women scream that they, too, want to become priests. You already are! First see to it that you are good priests and priestesses at home, of course, this goes for the husbands as well.

A Child's Modesty Will Arise Automatically

The mother changes the child and bathes him. By the way, the father may also do this. As long as the child is young, he thinks nothing of it. GOD has so arranged things that a child will automatically – whether he knows about GOD's Commandments or not – as soon as he is ready, have a sense of modesty. At a certain age he will suddenly say, when his mother comes along as usual and he is not clothed:

„Mum ...!“ and will turn away. GOD has so arranged it because in actual fact the sexual urge is the strongest drive that man has. You can, of course, redirect it. Nowadays everything is done in such a way that the family is torn apart. Even at the nursery school gender doctrine and suchlike are taught. Why do you marry, if you marry at all? In my case, GOD wanted me to marry. I had found a wife and respected, loved her very much. I thought: „Nothing bad should happen to her. I want to take care of her and see to it that she will be doing all right with me.“ As they say so nicely: „I will fulfil your every wish!“ – If things do not go well in the family, neither will it go well in the Church. That is the largest family; there the little families gather together in the large one.

The Purity of Mary

Of course, we are no match for the Holy Family. We cannot be as they are, that stands to reason. Because GOD took Flesh in Mary and He remained GOD nonetheless, His body could not afford to have been affected by the least stain, by any sinfulness or the like. Mary had to be absolutely pure, she had already been born such. In order to explain it, we would have to go back as far as the Old Testament, to Abraham, to Adam and Eve. Abraham's blessing was like a little luminous cloud. When the father passed on this blessing to his son because he retreated, it was always the firstborn son who received this blessing – this little luminous cloud. This was the reason why Jacob and Esau had an argument, because Jacob received the blessing of his father Isaac by pretending to be Esau. Then an Angel came to Jacob, it is written, they wrestled with each other; and then, afterwards, Jacob limped on this side of the hip. The Angel had removed this little luminous cloud from him and later Joachim, the father of Mary, received it from an Angel into his hip. And then it passed from Joachim to Anne. It was not the male semen, it was this luminous cloud. As a result, Mary was begotten and born in the purest way. And when JESUS took Flesh in Mary, He received a spotless, pure flesh, otherwise He could not have redeemed us.
