

educated person, people would say: „Yes, of course, he has studied, he has it in his head.“ Exactly: in the head. That would be of no use, GOD wants the heart. In my case people would have to say: „Where did he get that from? He did not study, so it must be from GOD after all.“ Or do you think that I myself had worked the miracles that happened when, for example, I said to a dead man: „Come back!“ and he woke up again? I cannot do that. It is only logical that GOD does so. Amen!

Greatness of Mary, the Mother of GOD
Death – and What Happens

My beloved! Very often people refer me to the Bible: „What you are bringing is not in the Bible!“ as if I did not know the Bible. The very same people, however, reject the Church together with her teaching and Sacraments. But the Church is always good, it is only the ground staff in the Church who at present are not good and that grieves gruesomely.

Do you really believe that the SAVIOUR spoke only those few words that are written in the New Testament in the three years that He was together with the Apostles? He could have said that in one day. Many do not know that the Church only included in the Bible what all four Evangelists report. This happened at a time when a Pope said: „We can only accept such things that are verified,“ including, of course, the writings of the Apostle Paul, the letters of other Apostles as well as the Revelation of John. Everything else was put aside and with good reason. One congregation had this Apostle, others another Apostle, all of whom performed great miracles and were, of course, greatly revered by their congregation. Popular piety began to add this and that, much was exaggerated. Did John not say:

John 21:25: „Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.“

The Dying of a Person

It is not exactly as I now say, but I can only make it understood here on earth in this way. When a person dies in the love of GOD, the soul slips out just like that. With other people it is a dreadful fight, especially for a soul that perishes, because it already feels what is coming and does not want to leave the body. But there are exceptions: GOD-loving people can also have a severe death struggle if they want to make a sacrifice of it. When the soul has left the body, it comes into the so-called light and feels the unfathomable love of GOD, but at the same time its own terrible sinfulness, depending on how the person has lived. Whoever is damned does not have to wait long, the demons will quickly take this soul to its place. If a soul is saved but not yet pure, it realises: „I am so dirty, I cannot go to GOD. He is the Pure One, I want to purify myself!“ The very soul itself throws itself into a kind of purification until it is completely pure. The Catholic Church speaks of Purgatory. You can say that it is a kind of purgatory, but there are no flames of fire there, though it is a purification.

The Greatness of Mary

Why do people have such difficulty believing in GOD's miracles? The holy Brother Klaus lived without food and drink for 20 years, only on the Holy Eucharist. There are still others to whom exactly the same happened. Why do people not want to believe? Now comes the tricky subject of "Mary" again. But what about Fatima, Lourdes, La Salette, where she appeared? Yes, I know that if you go there and see the fuss that is made there today, you can really lose your faith. But that is not what grieves me most, it is that people think they can argue about the Mother of the LORD so disrespectfully. Some say that she is dead, that she cannot be invoked as an intercessor, others bring up the saying of JESUS from Holy Scripture: „Woman, what have I to do with you?“ and they interpret it in such a way that the SAVIOUR does not, therefore, hold His Mother in high esteem. This is totally wrong! I only know one thing: the SAVIOUR turned water into wine. Why did He do it? Through Mary's intercession! It almost drives me to despair that they do not grasp what "Hail Mary" means. Is it then forbidden to repeat something that GOD the FATHER said? Through the Archangel Gabriel, GOD the FATHER said to this Virgin: „Hail Mary!“ May I also no longer say to you: „Hail to you!“? – And further on in the "Hail Mary" it says: „You are full of grace,“ and she had to be. She gave to GOD, the SAVIOUR, human nature. GOD came into her womb, perfect in His GODHEAD, but in the smallest miniature so that she might give Him flesh. What then did her flesh have to be like, which wrapped up GOD, to put it a little naively? How pure did this flesh have to be? Pure, pure, pure, absolutely pure, otherwise GOD would already be in sin – through the body He assumed.

We venerate Mary as the Mother of the LORD. Do you actually know how much the SAVIOUR loves His human mother? He who gave the Commandment: „You shall honour your father and mother...“ now that He can love her as the SON of GOD, should say to her: „You can go now, you have done your duty. Moor, you can go!“? That would be absurd. I say it once again: the mistake is that we fail to explain to the people how we see the Mother of GOD. We venerate her. I know how much the SAVIOUR venerates her, she is the apple of GOD's eye. She was prepared by the HOLY SPIRIT. Anticipating what JESUS did on the Cross, she was preserved from any stain of sin – including the guilt of original sin. She was absolutely pure so that she could give the human body to the SON of GOD. But she is not a goddess.

The Personal Instrument of JESUS CHRIST

My beloved, insult me if you like, but do not insult GOD and Mary. Although I would not advise it in my case either, because I am His personal Instrument. This is obvious from the very fact that I myself would not be capable of this task at all. You know, if I were a highly
