

they preferred martyrdom so that they would not have to deny GOD. Only when the vaccination is absolutely forced and your existence as well as your children's is endangered, should you submit to be vaccinated because I will not grant Satan the pleasure of destroying an existence besides. Then, during three days, drink 2 dl of holy water containing the Michael's salt, highly sacralised by me, also wet the injection spot with holy water and have faith! If we NOW straighten out our lives, if we NOW try to be a joy to GOD, then we need not fear the future! What on earth is a female chancellor or a president of a country? They are only people who come and go. But not GOD – HE is without beginning and without end! GOD is and remains the Winner! Amen!

Preparation for the Future Temptations of Satan

My beloved! Unfortunately, I had to sense with GOD's permission that the Evil One is also attacking those faithful to me: with doubts about GOD's work, with doubts and criticism of the Sword-Bishop, with: „He can preach what he wants, but I do what I deem fit,“ with temptations to succumb to grave sins, with spiritual weariness ... I fear for you and suffer very much because of it as mankind is up for hard times and I surely want those entrusted to me, whom GOD has placed in my heart, to be prepared for the future.

Premarital Coming Together

Sexuality is a gift of GOD, which He gave to man and woman in the Sacrament of Marriage. But today everything has become so primitive, be it on television, the Internet, in magazines or elsewhere. Especially nowadays, the innocence of children is stained or even taken away with sex education in schools, with immoral customs, gender teaching and many more things. The sense of shame is "the ring wall of the castle." Once it is breached, the enemy has free access. Young people indulge in love affairs and thus rashly squander their innocence, as they carelessly play with fire. – Masturbation is taken for granted today. Those who already do this on a regular basis have lost the crown of a king's child or it has slipped out of place on them. And once you are in it, you are no longer a man or a woman, you are just no more than a wind used by the devil. You become weaker and weaker and are no longer able to say: „No! That is how it is and no other way!“ Therefore, when temptation comes, say: „Get lost, buzz off, away with you! CHRIST rules me!“

Children's Upbringing – Married Life

What then is the task of a father, a mother? What GOD would be most pleased with is that the father may see to it that the Christian life is lived in his family, and that the mother may implant the faith in the heart of her children, because it is mainly given to the mother to speak into the heart, to put the faith into the heart of her children. Father and mother: you bear the responsibility before GOD, because GOD gave you the children, that you raise them for Him. Today they speak of an anti-authoritarian upbringing of children. Experience shows that such children often end up in prison later and curse their parents: „If only my parents had told me this ...“ Therefore, always raise your children with love, but also with consistency. Children need the warmth of a nest, so parents should never quarrel or thoroughly discuss differences of opinion in front of their children. Nor should the TV be on all day long just to keep the child occupied and distracted. After a hard day at work, a father should not still have to help with the house-keeping in the evening because the mother has only devoted herself to the children. Many a man feels neglected because his wife only sees the children and even sleeps with them at night instead of by his side. But likewise, a father should never forget what it means for a mother to be surrounded by lively children all day and to be bombarded with many questions. There are so many issues that would be important in this regard. How much I long for the enlargement of our house to be able to hold more meetings for married couples, family meetings, etc. GOD did not also make me familiar with marriage and family life for nothing. Therefore, do not be afraid to come to me and my wife if you need help and advice.

Vaccinations Against Corona

Every week my sermons are published on different channels, and I have to recognise that even my spiritual children do not or only rarely watch them and are deceived by the official media. Do not forget that it is through me that GOD speaks to you and makes His will known. It grieves me that since the beginning of the Corona measures some of my spiritual children only attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Saturdays and have not attended the Sunday Mass for months. If you use this as a substitute for the Sunday commandment for such a long time, do you really believe that you are pleasing GOD by doing so? Do you think that you will then have the necessary strength to go through what is coming our way? Let us not forget how, during the persecution, the first Christians put themselves in danger of death every time they went to the assemblies.

The people are being lied to, lied to, lied to. The whole Corona pandemic is a fear psychosis without equal. What the Corona vaccinations do to people will only be known within a year or two. They will change people's behaviour. People will no longer be able to think for themselves but will be yielding to the coming godless rulers. Yes, even the Official Church already obeys the government. You will see that first of all the world's most feared things by Satan will be removed: the Holy Eucharist, Confession, and the other Sacraments of the Catholic and Orthodox Churches! Do you understand now why the government wants to prevent the masses from receiving the holy Sacraments? The Church has failed! We should, therefore, implore the HOLY SPIRIT as the Jews once prayed for the Messiah to come. Only the HOLY SPIRIT can make the blinded people see!

You should resist the vaccination as long as possible. The martyrs would only have had to offer one grain of incense to the Emperor, but
